THE CITY.

The News on "Muscle."

Mr. Editor:—In the News of Sunday morning, Nov. 6th, an article appeared in regard to myself, the purpose of which was evident to every man, under whose observation it came.

The gentleman who furnished that veracious sheet with the statement, is too well known in this community to need name. This gentleman is a man of the highest standing in the city, and his statement is a most valuable contribution to the public.

It seems the worthy ex-attorney had a great desire to legislate and desired to be sent to the legislature by his townsmen. Unfortunately for his aspiring greatness the voters of his town did not desire to have him in the legislature, and he has been sent to the legislature by his townsmen.
